Action Workout offer

Duration: Short AWO 3.5 days / Long AWO 5 days

Description: The Action Workout consulting offer intends to provide solutions to companies facing medium to complex business process issues or performance loss, productivity drop or high cost of quality. A pre-assessment meeting is necessary with our specialist to confirm the length of the AWO with respect to the complexity of the issue. The consultant will then facilitate and provide guidance during brainstorming sessions with the group of business experts, and help them with Lean Six Sigma tools to properly analyze the issues for correct resolution. A 2 hour debriefing and conclusion session will then be held for executives and staff with report remittance and advices on next steps, hints on project management and change communication.

The facilitator will help the business reach targeted actions to significantly improve the process performance within one to two months time. It is important to note that business expert team involvement is critical during the whole length of the AWO. Any delays or prolongation caused by the absence of key subject experts might result in extra billing. When dealing with serious business issues, support from staff and executives is critical to success of operation
